Speaking Topics

COURAGEOUS CALLING:

Knowing Who You Are in Christ & Walking Boldly in Your Calling

Derived from her book, "IDENTIFIED: Knowing Who You Are in Christ & Moving Forward in Your Purpose," Courtayne speaks to women about truly embracing who God created them to be and how to walk in their life purpose from a biblical and practical perspective.

SERVANT LEADERSHIP:

Serving God, Serving Others

Today, more and more women are becoming leaders in the church, ministry, in the workplace, and online. Courtayne talks to women in leadership or those preparing to go into a leadership role on how to lead like Jesus and how to care for those entrusted to them with grace, love, concern, and service. She also talks about setting realistic goals, while creating a healthy balance between work, ministry, and the leader's home and personal life.

WRITING & SPEAKING

The Power of Words on Paper & a Platform

Writing is a gift, but so is speaking. While utilizing both of these gifts through writing for print or speaking on a platform LIVE or virtually, there are ways to do it effectively and non-effectively. Courtayne speaks to women about how to write and speak for God with sensitivity to the Holy Spirit's direction, while trusting God through every step of the preparation process.
